

Beat: News

Smriti Zubin Irani Inaugurates New Delhi World Book Fair 2016

NBT To Bring Out 16 New Titles

New Delhi, India, 11.01.2016, 12:52 Time

USPA NEWS - The Additional Secretary, Ministry of Information & Broadcasting, Mr. J.S. Mathur at inauguration of the Publications Division Display, at World Book Fair, Pragati Maidan, in New Delhi on January 09, 2016.

NBT To Bring Out 16 New Titles Under the Navlekhan Series

“We believe in Athithi Devo Bhavaa and in our tradition we worship our guests. We hope that the people from the Guest of Honour country, China will feel at home in India,” said Mrs. Smriti Zubin Irani, Union Minister of Human Resource Development, while welcoming China as the Guest of Honour country at the 24th edition of New Delhi World Book Fair at New Delhi to be held from 9 to 17 January 2016. The Fair is being organized by the National Book Trust, India in collaboration with the India Trade Promotion Organisation.

Talking about the India-China relationship since ancient times on January 9, the Minister said that there is a mention of Chinese silk dress in Arthashastra which shows how Indian history finds mention of the country’s relationship with China. She hoped that both the countries will strengthen ties both on the cultural and knowledge front.

Mrs. Irani appreciated efforts undertaken by the NBT to bring out 16 new titles under the Navlekhan series and hoped that it would also publish books in 22 major Indian languages.

She also said that the children from various states of India including Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Manipur, Assam among others with select photographers would be sent as shodh yatris to countries like Sri Lanka, Malaysia, Thailand, Cambodia and their memoirs will be published in the form of books.

Mr. Baldeo Bhai Sharma, Chairman, NBT said that on the lines of inspiration from Mrs. Smriti Zubin Irani, the Minister of Human Resource Development, the Trust has come up with a new Navlekhan series for young writers under the age of forty and has brought out 16 new titles. He also informed that the theme pavilion will display books beginning from bhoj patra to ebooks and will also display ancient scripts.

Mr. Liu Zhenyou, eminent Chinese author; Mr Le Yucheng, Chinese Ambassador to India; and Mr. Vinay Sheel Oberoi, Secretary, Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Human Resource Development also spoke on the occasion.

Earlier, Dr Rita Chowdhury, Director, NBT welcomed the guests present on the occasion. She hoped that through books, booklovers especially the young will get an opportunity to connect with the cultural heritage of India.

Later, Mrs. Irani inaugurated the Theme Pavilion and the China pavilion at Pragati Maidan.

Article online:

<https://www.uspa24.com/bericht-6911/smriti-zubin-irani-inaugurates-new-delhi-world-book-fair-2016.html>

Editorial office and responsibility:

V.i.S.d.P. & Sect. 6 MDSStV (German Interstate Media Services Agreement): Doruvu Paul Jagan Babu

Exemption from liability:

The publisher shall assume no liability for the accuracy or completeness of the published report and is merely providing space for the submission of and access to third-party content. Liability for the content of a report lies solely with the author of such report. Doruvu Paul Jagan Babu

Editorial program service of General News Agency:

United Press Association, Inc.
3651 Lindell Road, Suite D168
Las Vegas, NV 89103, USA
(702) 943.0321 Local
(702) 943.0233 Facsimile
info@unitedpressassociation.org
info@gna24.com
www.gna24.com